A unique opportunity to grow your business

90% of this year's attendees said they would recommend the Conference

The annual Cultural Enterprises Conference is well established as an unmissable networking and training event in the field of cultural income generation.

- The only event that brings together learning and experience from all types and sizes of arts and heritage venues, attracting buyers and decision makers across all areas of revenue generation
- Targeted audience offering unrivalled networking opportunities to showcase your business and develop your customer base
- Inspirational Trade Show featuring design-led retail product, consultancy and solutions for sustainable income generation

Supporting the Sector

The Cultural Enterprises Conference is widely recognised as the most significant event in the calendar for anyone working in income generation within the cultural sector.

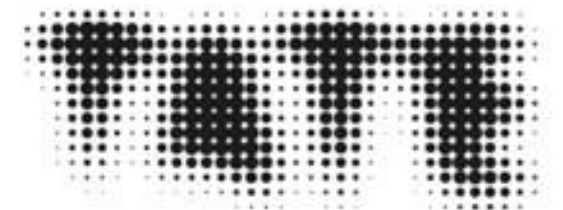

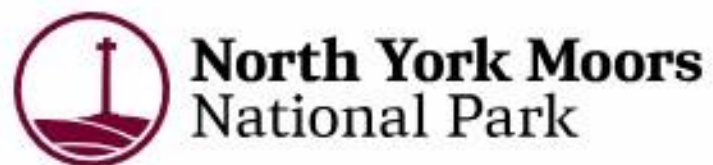

By sponsoring this showcase event, you will raise your own profile and you will be directly supporting us to embed commercial best practice and drive growth and sustainability across the sector – something that is essential to the future success of cultural organisations.

Your gateway to hundreds of organisations in a valued sector

The Conference is attended by over 400 professionals from all types of arts, cultural and heritage venues in the UK and overseas.

- Museums, galleries, theatres, libraries, cathedrals, gardens and historic houses as well as national organisations such as English Heritage, National Trust, Historic Environment Scotland and Cadw
- Meet key decision makers working in ecommerce, visitor experience, retail, venue hire, publishing, licensing, image libraries, front of house, catering and more
